At last we have the judicial status of "goo-goo eyes." A New Jersey judge defines them as "attentions without intentions; flirtatious attentions," etc., etc. That's what they are in New Jersey, anyhow.

In Europe automobiles speed over the country roads at the rate of fifty miles an hour, and they don't kill people as they do in this country. This shows that the fault isn't in the machine, but in those who navigate it.

The foreign element is a potent factor in most of the Western and Northern cities. In New York it constitutes 36 per cent. of the population in Boston, 35.1 per cent.; in Chicago, 34.6; in San Francisco, 31.2.

In some portions of Illinois, where the crows do congregate, the people have occasional roundups. In one of these recently they slaughtered 1,396, and they are crowing over it. And yet the crow does more good than harm.

Malden, Mass., is suffering from too muchness of gypsy moths, caterpillars and other crawling nuisances, and is offering a bounty of ten cents a quart tor them. A chance for the boys to make their fire-cracker money.

It is reported that Wm. Waldorf Astor will give his daughter $20,000,000 when she gets married. With such an announcement as that the chances are favorable to her finding a husband without waiting very long.

There is trouble brewing in the Milwaukee breweries. The brewers want to limit the quantity of free beer of their employes to four quarts each a day. The men declare that they would perish on such a scanty allowance, and are kicking like Kentucky mules.

There is a Philadelphia man who is well-to-do but has such an attachment to towels that he can't refrain from appropriating them when he gets within arm's reach of them. They call him a kleptomaniac. There is no accounting for the freaks of a Philadelphia maniac.

A Kansas City, Mo., dispatch says there is a movement on foot to build within twenty miles of that city the largest cotton mill in the world. Twenty million dollars are to be invested, and it will have 500,000 spindles, 12,000 looms, and will employ 4,000 operatives. With 500,000 spindles it will be a hummer.

A GOOD WOMAN PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Carl Mugge Died Rather Suddenly at Family Home Last Night—The Funeral This Afternoon.

Friends in the city will hear with exceeding great sorrow of the death of Mrs. Johanna Mugge, wife of Mr. Carl Mugge and a most estimable woman, whose death occurred rather suddenly last night at the family residence, Princess near Second street.

Mrs. Mugge was apparently in the best of health until 9 o'clock last night when, as she was about to retire, she suffered a severe attack of heart failure from which she died two hours later while under the care of the best physicians who were quickly summoned.

Mrs. Mugge was born in Wilmington Feb. 7th, 1859, and was a daughter of the late G. H. W. Runge and Mrs. Johanna Runge, who survives her. She is also survived to mourn their loss by four sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Aiden Powell, of Smithfield, N. C.; Mrs. Z. C. Loftin, Miss Katie Runge, Miss Bertha Runge-Smith, Mr. J. Theodore Runge and Mr. G. W. Runge. Of the immediate family besides the heart-broken husband, there survive two bright little children, Carlotta, aged 13 years, and Ludolph, aged 11. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of very many friends.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock from the late residence, thence to St. Paul's Lutheran church, of which the deceased lady was a consistent member, and thence to Oakdale cemetery.

LOCAL DOTS.

— Rev. C. B. Paul will conduct the service at the First Baptist church to-night.

— Messrs. Gough & Allen will run an excursion from Lumberton to Wilmington, July 8th.

— Mr. Charles S. Grainger has been appointed assistant cashier of the Murchison National Bank.

— To-morrow being "Independence Day," and a national holiday, no paper will be issued from the STAR office Saturday morning.

— The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

— Arrangements have been completed for the excursion to the black fish grounds to-morrow. The boat leaves the Custom House wharf at 2 A. M. sharp. Tickets on sale at Nutt's drug store.

— The five months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Swann, 808 South Seventh street, died at 3 A. M. yesterday. The interment will take place this morning at Myrtle Grove Sound.

— The next excursion from Goldsboro to Wilmington will be run by Messrs Pope, Southerland and Sutton and will arrive Wednesday morning, July 9. The fare for the round trip is only $1.25.

— The postoffice carriers will make but one delivery and one collection on July 4th. The stamp and general delivery windows will be open from 9 to 10 A. M., and 6 to 7 P. M. The money order and registry department will be closed during the day.

Carpenters To Celebrate.

Local Union 899 of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America will publicly install their newly elected officers Saturday evening at 8 P. M. at their hall opposite the Front street market. They have invited all non-union carpenters in the city and the Electrical Wire Workers to meet with them and enjoy an evening of social pleasure, sandwiched with short talks, refreshments, &c. All are expected to bring their wives, daughters or best girls.

Winston Carriers Coming.

Winston Journal: Extensive arrangements are being made for the entertainment of the State Letter Carriers' Association which meets in Wilmington July 4th. A number of local carriers will attend the meeting. Among them are A. Prempert, W. E. Gordon, W. L. Vest and possibly others.

On Educational Work.

Rev. A. D. Hunter, financial secretary of the Century Educational Work of the Baptist State Convention, spoke at Southside Baptist church last night at 8 o'clock. A large crowd heard his very interesting discourse.

Observe the Neck and Neck Race of the Bulls and Giants.

— Two games to-morrow, one at 10 A. M. and the other at 4 P. M.

— Wilmington played another very naught-y game yesterday.

— Never mind the shet-outs. We'll all go out and see the game to-day.

— The game will be called at 4 P. M. "Many are called, but few are"—won.

— Possibly the local team will be strengthened by a visiting pitcher this afternoon.

— You know Newbern cannot beat us four straights. If she can we mean to see how it is done.

— It is a tight race between the Bulls and the Giants. It now stands three "skunks" for each.

— Being now engaged in a fruitless effort to raise money and cantaloupes, the horse editor will sell his baseball franchise on reasonable terms.

— Thackara and Devlin, of last year's Wilmington team, are now with the Newbern team, the former in the capacity of captain. The Wilmington cranks should give "Thack" the glad hand at the park this afternoon.

Crushed Between Car and Engine.

While attempting to couple a car to a shifting engine on the A. C. L. dummy line at foot of Chesnut street about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Geo. Lucas, colored, 26 years old, was caught between the "dummy" engine and the "bumpers" of the car and badly crushed about the left side. It is thought he has suffered internal injuries and may die. He was removed to his room upstairs in the brick building at northeast corner of Nutt and Mulberry streets, where Dr. D. W. Bulluck, Atlantic Coast Line surgeon, attended him.

The Judicial Convention.

The Democratic convention of the fifth judicial district, composed of the counties of New Hanover, Duplin, Lenoir, Sampson, Pender and Onslow, is called by Chairman Henry E. Faison and Secretary Frank Thompson to assemble at the Court House in Wilmington on July 24th at 3 P. M. Only a solicitor is to be nominated. Thus far the STAR has heard of no opposition to the present very able incumbent, Rodolph Duffy, Esq., of Onslow. The New Hanover delegates are instructed unanimously for him.

The Stranded Schooners.

Nothing was heard yesterday from the stranded schooners off Cape Lookout, and no tugs from here, so far as could be learned, went to their assistance. The Ida C. Schoolcraft, Capt. "Ben" Robinson, is consigned to Messrs. George Harriss, Son & Co., and has a cargo of coal for one of the fisheries down the river.

— Dr. Craig Barrow, of Savannah, arrived from the South last night.

THREE LODGES INSTALLED OFFICERS LAST NIGHT.

Orion Lodge, I. O. O. F., Jefferson Lodge, K. of P., and Jeff Davis Council, Jr. O. U. A. M.—An Excursion.

The first week in July is always a season of installation of officers with the various secret orders of the city, of which there are in Wilmington perhaps more than in any other city of its size in the Union.

Lodge Deputy H. O. Craig, assisted by Past Grands P. T. Dickey, C. D. Morrill and J. A. Orrell, installed the following officers of Orion Lodge No. 67, I. O. O. F., at the regular meeting last night:

S P G—Wm Simpson.
N G—W H Hodges.
V G—J H Swinson.
R S—L T Bowden.
F S—J E Silva.
Treasurer—H O Craig.
Warden—A T Parker.
R S to N G—C D Morrill.
L S to N G—P T Dickey.
R S to V G—A W Watson.
L S to V G—J A Orrell.
I G—F B LeGwin.
O G—J E G Brown.
Chaplain—B R Penny.
Conductor—C W Stewart.

Jefferson Lodge No. 61, Knights of Pythias, also installed officers last night, the installation having been conducted by Deputy Grand Chancellor E. H. Munson, assisted by G. M. at A., J. C. Morrison and Grand Prelate R. S. Collins. They are as follows:

C C—E F Jones.
V C—W L Williford.
Prelate—L O Smith.
M at A—R C Rubright.
M of E—B O Stone.
I. G—W O Page.
O G—G W Branch.

A committee of ten was appointed to assist in the arrangement of a moonlight excursion down the river on the night of July 16th, under the auspices of Stonewall, Clarendon and Jefferson lodges, the proceeds to be applied to a fund for furnishing the new K. of P. Hall. The committee consists of Messrs. E. J. Jones (chairman), Anson Alligood, E. H. Munson, R. S. Collins, R. C. Rubright, G. W. Branch, L. O. Smith, R. C. Platt, W. O. Page and W. L. Williford.

At the regular meeting of Jeff Davis Council No. 63, Jr. O. U. A. M., Tuesday night, the following officers were installed for the term beginning July 1st:

Jr P C—W J Bellamy.
F S—G C Simmons.
C—W F Brittain.
Treasurer—John Thomas.
V C—C W Craig.
Conductor—H T Craig.
R S—J E. Wood.
A R S—E Russ.
Warden—R S Cowan.
I S—E G Hall.
O S—J S R Wallace.
Chaplain—J E Gordon.
Trustees—J E Wood, J F Craig and W F Brittain.

After the installation a delightful spread of refreshments was served which was thoroughly enjoyed by the large number of Juniors in attendance.

PASTOR OF DELGADO CHURCH.

Rev. J. W. Wheeler Has Accepted Call to Important Mission Field.

Rev. J. W. Wheeler has accepted a call to the mission work at Delgado Mills and has removed with his wife and child to cottage No. 50 in the village. He will preach at Delgado two Sundays in each month and devote the remainder of his time to the Baptist mission work in contiguous territory.

The employment of Rev. Mr. Wheeler was made possible by a very liberal contribution from an outside source through the mission committee of the First Baptist church.

Rev. Mr. Wheeler until week before last was of the Methodist Episcopal church in the Newbern district, and was baptized into the Baptist faith by Rev. Hight C. Moore, of Newbern, Thursday a week ago. He is said to be a very consecrated man and an earnest worker. For several years he was associated with Rev. C. R. Paul, of Southside Baptist church, this city, and it was largely through Mr. Paul's influence that he was secured for the work here. He is a native of Tennessee and is aged about 30 years, pleasant in conversation and with a willing hand for the work he has undertaken.

PRETTY CHURCH ENTERTAINMENT.

"A Bunch of Roses" Charmingly Rendered at Chapel of the Good Shepherd.

A delightful little play, "A Bunch of Roses," was charmingly presented by the Sanctuary Guild of the Chapel of the Good Shepherd last evening to an appreciative audience. The play was well staged, the lighting effects were good and the costuming elegant. The entertainment took place in the Hall of the Good Shepherd, which was attractively decorated for the occasion. The cast of characters was as follows, and each part was well taken:

Mrs. Rose—Mrs. A. E. Carter.

The Roses—Misses Sadie Huhn, Ethel Lewis, Helen Skinner, Mary Marine, Katie Hall, Lillie Gorman and Lizzie Oliver.

Rosebuds—Misses Gertrude Lewis, Hattie Burrus and Allie Skinner.

Mr. Melrose—Mr. Walter Thomas.

The entertainment closed with a posing as the statue of Columbia by Mrs. A. E. Carter, while the company sang with much effect "The Stars and Stripes."

— Dr. R. S. Turlington, of Bennettsville, S. C., was an Orton guest yesterday.

"GLORIOUS FOURTH."

Elaborate Celebration Friday at the Beaches and Also at Southport.

NUMBER OF EXCURSIONS.

Annual Regatta at Wrightsville by Carolina Yacht Club—Special Train to Lake Waccamaw—The Day on the River--Two Ball Games.

The "glorious fourth of July" in Wilmington, at the beaches, at Southport, at Lake Waccamaw and at many adjoining places will be appropriately celebrated tomorrow and without a doubt upon a much more extensive scale than in many years past.

The observance in Wilmington will consist of little more than closing of stores and offices, while at the other points mentioned attractive programmes have been arranged and many city folks will turn guests and enjoy the recreation of the day with their neighbors. At Hilton Park there will be two professional games of baseball during the day and perhaps an excursion party from Newbern to enjoy them. The local team has taken a "bracer" and will win one of the two, which will be in the morning and afternoon.

Wrightsville Beach will be a popular place on the "fourth" as of yore. There will be the usual 20 trains a day over the Seacoast road to take the crowds to and from the popular resort and an attractive programme of events will entertain the people while there. The train schedule is leaving Wilmington at 6:30, 9, and 10:15 A. M., 12:15, 1:45, 3:15, 5:15, 7:45 and 9:15 P. M.; leaving Ocean View at 7:30 and 10 A. M., 12 noon, 1:30, 3, 5, 6:10, 7:30 9 and 11 P. M.

Of course the drawing card will be the annual regatta by the Carolina Yacht Club for which all arrangements are complete. There will be from seven to ten entries. The prizes are very handsome this year and are on display at Mr. George Honnet's jewelry store, where they were purchased. The first is a splendid chafing dish; the second, a three-light silver candelabra and the third, a handsome silver flask, neatly chased and engraved. The cup offered by Commodore Cowan will go to the fastest yacht. The yachts will report promptly at 4 o'clock and the regatta will commence at 4:30 P. M. The Regatta Committee is composed of Messrs. George Harriss, T. W. Davis, and J. K. Williams. Another attraction advertised for the day is a yacht race over an outside course, open to all without restriction as to class, sail, area or ballast. Cash prizes are advertised. The fireworks display at night, it is said will be better, fuller and fiery than ever before. A submarine explosion is one of the features of the display advertised. Morning and afternoon concerts will be given by the Carolina Orchestra and a ball will be given at the Seashore Hotel. Dancing will also be in progress at Ocean View pavilion while bowling, ping-pong and pool contests for prizes will be in progress at the amusement parlors of the Seashore Hotel.

Fourth At Carolina Beach.

The fourth at Carolina Beach will be made notable by the annual excursion to that resort by Jeff Davis Council No. 63, Junior Order of United American Merchanics. There will be three round trips during the day and the fare will be only 25 cts. The boats leave at 8:30, 10.39 and 12.00 A. M., and at 2 P. M, and the last at 7 P. M. Passengers may take their choice of going through to Southport at the same price and the schedule of leaving that city is 11 A. M. 4:30 P. M. and 9:30 P. M. At the beach the Juniors and their friends will enjoy a day of delightful sea breeze, a baseball game between picked teams, sack races and other athletic sports. Accommodations have been provided for a very large crowd and a pleasant time is assured. Mr. John E. Wood is chairman of the committee of arrangements.

Big Celebration at Southport.

Perhaps nowhere will the celebration of the fourth be more elaborate or fitting than in the delightful little city of Southport. Energetic committees have been at work the past month to make the celebration exceed all former efforts and it is very certain that they have accomplished their undertaking. There are no more hospitable people on earth than those of Southport and to their Wilmington friends they say "Welcome." Every form of entertainment known to the civilized world will be provided, including boat races, baseball, athletic contests, concerts and patriotic demonstrations. The annual oration will be by Dr. Calvin S. Blackwell, of Wilmington, and that is sufficient guarantee that it will be one of unusual excellence.

The steamer Wilmington will make three round trips during the day, leaving at 8:30 A. M., at 2 P. M. and 7 P. M. and leaving Southport at 11 A. M., 4:30 and 9:30 P. M. The steamer Compton, in charge of the clever Capt. W. A. Sanders, will also make three round trips during the day, leaving Wilmington at 8:15 A. M., 2 P. M. and 7 P. M.; leaving Southport, 10:30 A. M., 4:30 P. M. and 9:30 P. M. The fare will be 25 cents and the boat will run through without transfer.

Excursion to Lake Waccamaw.

Another feature of the day will be the Atlantic Coast Line excursion to Lake Waccamaw and return, leaving the Front street station at 8 A. M.; Brinkley's, 8:47 A. M.; Freeman's, 8:52 A. M.; Maxwell's, 9:05 A. M., and arriving at Lake Waccamaw 9:20 A. M. Returning, the special train will leave Lake Waccamaw at 8 P. M., arriving here at 9:20 P. M. The fare for the round trip will be 75 cents.

BRILLIANT EVENT AT WARSAW

Miss Carrie Hussey Became the Bride of Dr. Jas. H. Newbury in a Beautiful Ceremony in Baptist Church.

WARSAW, N. C., July 2.—A marriage in which Warsaw society has been interested for some weeks was consummated at the Baptist Church at 6:30 o'clock this evening, when Miss Carrie, the lovely and accomplished daughter of Dr. LaFayette Hussey, became the bride of Dr. James Henry Newbury, a talented young dentist of Magnolia, Rev. J. J. Douglass, of Wilson, officiating.

To the strains of the wedding march artistically rendered by Miss Laura Lake Hartsell, of Goldsboro, the bride, handsomely costumed in white silk, ornamented with diamonds, carrying a bouquet of carnations entered upon the arm of her brother, Mr. Ernest Hussey, of Charlotte, while the groom attired in the conventional black, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Jas. Southerland, of Goldsboro, entered the opposite aisle and meeting at the chancel, were made man and wife by a beautiful and impressive ring service.

The maid of honor was Miss Louise Hussey, sister of the bride, wearing a handsome pink organdie. The attendants were Capt. James Hartsell, of Goldsboro, with Miss Pattie Maye, of Fremont; Mr. Joe E. Johnson, of Wilson, with Miss Eva Hussey, of Warsaw; Mr. Ed. J. Hill, of Warsaw, with Miss Daisy Johnson, of Teacheys; Dr. J. M. Wiliams, of Kenansville, with Miss Grace Hussey, of Atlanta; Mr. Jack E. Williams, of Warsaw, with Miss Maye Cox, of Catherine Lake; Mr. Earle D. Best of Warsaw, with Miss Estelle Williams of Kenansville; Mr. Ed. Yolverton, of Goldsboro, with Miss Bessie Hinson, of Kenansville; Mr. Clyde B. Glazbrook of Baltimore, with Miss Annie Maye Newbury of Wilmington; Mr. Perry J. Heath of Selma, with Miss Annie Ross Williams, of Kenansville. The ladies wore white organdie; the gentlemen full dress. Little Miss Martha Whitaker of Greensboro, was ring bearer, and Miss Sue Hussey, flower girl; both being neices of the bride.

The church was elaborately decorated for the occasion by Mr. Glazbrook, a skilled, prfessional decorator of Baltimore, and presented a beautiful appearance. The happy pair left on the 8:45 train for an extended bridal tour embracing Toronto, Niagara Falls, Rochester, Baltimore and Washington, and will be at home, Magnolia, after July 20th, where Dr. Newbury, who has successfully won the degree of D D. S. at the University of Maryland and passed the State Board, will temporarily locate for the practice of his profession. Both are well known in Eastern North Carolina society circles, and have a host of friends who will join in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life's journey. The presents were numerous and valuable, attesting the popularity of the young people.

One of the most pleasant features of the occasion was the reception on Tuesday night at the home of Dr. Hussey, followed by an impromptu dance at the home of Dr. J. N. Johnson, in which a large number of Goldsboro, Wilmington, Clinton, Faison, Kenansville and Warsaw's society people participated. The music was by the Boston Italian String Band, of Wilmington.

NORTH CAROLINA SOLDIER DEAD.

Private Dickinson, of Oxford, Died at Fort Caswell Tuesday Evening.

Private C. F. Dickinson, of Oxford, N. C., recently enlisted in the United States Army for service at Fort Caswell, died at the post Tuesday night, and the remains, accompanied by a military escort of eight men, under Corporal L. T. Rhodacker were brought up to the city yesterday and sent on last evening's train to the young man's old home for burial. The remains were also accompanied by Lieut. Garrison Ball and Dr. C. J. Manly, first lieutenant and assistant surgeon, who arranged for the embalming of the body at Woolvin's undertaking establishment.

Private Dickinson had been in the service only a few weeks and died of remittent malarial fever, with hematuria. He had been in the hospital much of the time since he came to Caswell. Corporal Rhodacker accompanied the remains to Oxford, where they will be interred to-day.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE.

Susan Ann Littleton to Maggie Arthur Littleton, her daughter, house and lot on north side of Castle between Third and Fourth streets; consideration $1.00.

John K. McIlhenny and wife to T. C. McIlhenny, Jr., H. H. McIlhenny et al., tract of land containing about 500 acres, situated at southern end of Eagle's Island, in Brunswick county, and an undivided one-half interest in lot at northwest intersection of Second and Market streets, 20x130 feet in size; consideration $350.

A Pool Match To-night.

An exhibition pool game of 100 points between Mr. Young, of Virginia, and Mr. Karns, of Washington, D. C., will be played at the Crescent Cigar Store, No. 109 Market street, at 9 o'clock to-night. Both players are experts and something interesting is expected. Those who care to do so may witness the contest.

A. and M. College.

This great industrial school is now ready for five hundred pupils. If you wish your boys taught to work, prepared for industrial life, trained in habits of economy, regularity and punctuality, write to President Winston, Raleigh, N. C., for booklet, "A Day at the A. and M. College."

Carolina Beach and Southport Steamboat Line.

WHERE TO GO AND HOW TO GO

JEFF DAVIS COUNCIL No. 63,
Junior Order United American Mechanics,
WILL CELEBRATE THE DAY AT

CAROLINA BEACH!

Which will be one of the most delightful places to spend the Fourth.

Music and Dancing all day until the last boat leaves at night. Refreshments at reasonable prices.

Baseball in afternoon by local teams, Sack Races, Races for Bathing Suit and other amusements.

Ladies and children can rest assured that the best of order will be preserved.

Southport.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 3.

NEGROES IN THE NORTH.

The New York Commercial in a recent editorial took issue with the New Orleans Picayune,, which asserted that the prejudice in the North is so strong against negroes that they cannot find employment in any of the trades nor even as common laborers, where white laborers are employed. The Commercial practically admits this, but it contends that it is not because there is a prejudice which closes such employments against negroes, but because they prefer to do something else, which is easier and more to their liking. It says:

"Well, if no negroes in or around New York are found in the building trades or in manufacturing, it is primarily and chiefly because they prefer to be preachers or barbers or lawyers or servants or cabmen. Nobody ever hears of their enforced exclusion from any occupation, no matter how humble or how high, if competent to engage in it. And, beyond doubt, they go or drift into what suits them best. They 'get their livings' just as other people do here regardless of their 'race, color or previous condition.'"

As there are about sixty thousand negroes in New York city it seems to us that the preacher, lawyer, servant, cabman, callings would be rather over crowded and there is no proof as far as our reading of the papers goes, that many of the negroes who have drifted to that city are competent to be preachers or lawyers, however it may be as to servants or cabmen.

But isn't it a fact as asserted by some New York press writers that the negroes are being dropped as servants and as cabmen and that there are not nearly as many now thus employed as there were years ago? Some of the hotels which a few years ago had all colored help now have all white help, while many families which a few years ago had negro coachmen now have white coachmen, while there are comparatively few colored barbers. This does not sustain the assertion of the Commercial as to servants, barbers, etc., however it may be as to the preachers and lawyers.

It is probably true that in a city as populous as New York, where the servant question is a perplexing one, a considerable number of negro women find employment as cooks and house girls, but this does not affect the statement as to the line drawn against negroes in the trades or manufactories. We venture to say that a tour of New York would not show a half dozen negroes employed as brick-layers, carpenters, plumbers or anything of that kind, or as many in the factories, save, perhaps as teamsters or doing poorly paid drudgery work that white men don't care to do.

The question, then, is how do the masses of the negroes in a city like New York live? Some idea of what they have to endure may be gotten from the following, written by Mary Rankin Cranston on the condition of the negroes of that city:

"To-day," she says, "a large number of negroes live in the section of the city bounded by 61st and 62d streets and 10th and 11th avenues. The last census shows that this block contains more people than any other in the city, having a population of about four thousand individuals. Without exception, agents say that negroes are not allowed to occupy houses until the tenements are really unfit for human habitation. After these quarters have become so dilapidated that white tenants will no longer live in them, they are rented to the colored people, invariably at a higher rate, although, generally speaking, negroes are good tenants and take far better care of property than a certain class of our white immigrant population. Absolutely no conveniences except washtubs are to be found in these tenements, not even ranges or bathtubs. For these accommodations, or rather for the lack of them, tenants pay from nine to fifteen dollars for three rooms and from fifteen to twenty dollars for four rooms, according to location."

The great majority of New York's sixty thousand negroes earn small wages, and the high rents reduce the family income so materially that a large number find it necessary to take boarders. In the 13th assembly district, comprising what is known as the Tenderloin, the Federation of Churches found over six thousand negroes. Nineteen per cent. of these live in one and two room tenements, 37 per cent. in three rooms, and 44 per cent. in four or more rooms. One-fourth of these pay less than ten dollars a month, two-thirds pay from ten to twenty dollars and always from one to two a month more than white tenants. If the rooms were of good size with ventilation this would not be such a poor showing, but when it is known that four hundred are inside rooms and that six hundred and fifty-five have only one window, the deplorable condition of these tenements will be understood.

While it is a fact, which is virtually admitted by the Commercial, that they cannot enter the industries which pay reasonable wages, it is also a fact that this same prejudice keeps them out of the more desirable residence quarters of the city, even the better class of them, and forces them into the least desirable, the most crowded and every way the most objectionable and into tenements lacking in construction for comfort and so destitute of conveniences and sanitary provisions that the wonder is they can live in them especially in warm season when fresh air to breath becomes a necessity for comfort if not for self-preservation. This prejudice forces the negroes into these quarters, corrals them as cattle are corralled, and gives the owners of these properties the opportunity to practice extortion upon them and force them to pay higher rent than would be demanded of white tenants occupying the same quarters. This would not be the case in any city in the South, where, although there may be objection for good reasons to having negro neighbors, there is plenty of room for them and as good houses as they wish to live in and are able to pay for. There is no discrimination that practices extortion upon them and compels them to pay more for a house than a white renter would have to pay.

The strange thing in this connection is that a paper of good standing, such as the Commercial is, should, even by indirection, question a fact which is so notorious not only in New York city but throughout the North and the West, where there is really more prejudice against the negro workman than there is anywhere in the South, where thousands of negro mechanics and there, attendants in outside employments may be seen at work, and frequently beside white workmen.

BLOCKED THE TRUST SCHEME.

The Greensboro telegram published yesterday, states that the movement to organize a furniture trust, which was proposed by the representatives of the Northern and Western furniture manufacturers gathered there in meeting, was defeated by the refusal of the High Point manufacturers to go into it, a refusal which, in our opinion, shows that the High Point manufacturers carry level heads.

The furniture-making business has grown nowhere else in the United States with the same rapidity, nor reached such colossal proportions in such short time as it has in the town of High Point, which, although a comparatively unknown railway station ten years ago has become a hustling manufacturing town of over six thousand population, and the second, if not the first furniture-manufacturing center in the United States. To have done this it must have had some exceptional advantages. The increase in the number of factories, and the enlargement of others give proof of the prosperity of the industry, another proof of which is given in the establishment of furniture manufactories in other towns in the State, which have been encouraged to thus embark by the success of the ventures in High Point.

The movement for the Trust did not originate with Southern manufacturers, but with Northern manufacturers, who probably have begun to realize that they have competition from the South. If they were doing well enough they would never have thought of suggesting a Trust —or what in modern Trust phraseology is called "a community of interest"—to the Southern manufacturers. They would have gone along as they have been going without making any overtures to their Southern competitors. They knew what they were doing, for they had everything to gain by such a Trust and nothing to lose, while the Southern manufacturers had nothing to gain but much to lose, which is doubtless the view the High Point manufacturers took of it when they showed their good sense by their refusal to be enticed into that Trust scheme.

A REMARKABLE SESSION.

The first session of the 57th Congress, which closed Tuesday, was a remarkable one in several respects, remarkable for the enormous sum of money appropriated, $927,000,000, the largest appropriation ever made at one session, and nearly as large as the appropriations by both sessions when Reed was speaker, which was regarded as extraordinarily extravagant at that time. The Republicans made light of it with the flippant boast that this was a "billion dollar country." They will probably now boast that it is a two billion dollar country.

But with the new expansion departure necessitating a larger army; with the war of aggression in the Philippines; with a larger navy to comport with the "world power" boast, larger expenditures come in as a matter of course. And there is little probability of any material reduction while the Republicans are in power.

It was remarkable, too, for some of the legislation enacted and for the successful dodging of some that should have been enacted. Among the important and notable legislation that was enacted was the repeal of the war taxes, the passage of the oleomargarine bill, the passage of the Philippine civil government bill and the passage of the Panama canal bill. These were all Republican measures and were passed, after very long and heated debates on some of them, by an almost strictly party vote.

It was remarkable, also, for some of the schemes that were shelved, one of which was the ship subsidy grab; for the strangling of the Cuban reciprocity bill, and for the obstinacy with which the majority resisted every movement to tackle the Trusts or to touch the tariff, for the revision of which there was such a general popular demand.

Taken as a whole the majority made a fine record—for the Democrats, who will not fail to make good use of it when they come to talk to the people.

A Chinaman in St. Louis who had a case against a Chinaman whom he charged with robbing him, asked the court to swear the defendant on a chicken head and some joss sticks, instead of the Bible, for the chicken head and the joss sticks would be more apt to hold him to the truth. In the California courts they nearly always swear Chinese witnesses in the Chinese form, but that doesn't prevent them from lying like pirates.

The 16-inch gun, which will soon be mounted for trial at Sandy Hook, weighs 260,000 pounds and is said to be the biggest gun in the world. It is claimed that it will throw a 2,000 pound projectile twenty-one miles, but it will take a thousand pounds of powder to do it. Shooting with this gun will cost money.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— Somebody suggests the transfer of the Philippines to Japan for a reasonable consideration—say, the the $20,000,000 paid to Spain by the United States. The consideration apart, it is hardly probable that the Yankees of the Far East have any notion of acquiring what would be worse than a Corsican vendetta.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

—— They are having a fine time of it in Hayti, the darkies fighting each other as if there were some real principle at stake. The negro seems to be the same wherever he may be, either at a hot supper in South Carolina or in a governmental crisis in the West Indies. And by the way the market for razors should be brisk in Hayti just now.—Charleston Post, Ind.

—— It is stated that Maximo Gomez is slated for general commanding the Cuban armed forces. He says he will accept the commission, and that he will give place to negroes in the rural guard. Gen. Gomez is quoted, by the way, as saying that the negroes are perfectly right in demanding equal rights under the republic. — Savannah News, Dem.

—— Our policy of expansion in the Philippines continues to manifest itself mainly in the way of expanding the grave yards in the islands. The "official reports," it is cabled from Manilla, show that there have been to date 1,385 deaths from cholera in Manilla and 7,038 in the provinces, and Col Maus, the insular health commissioner, estimates that there have been 2,000 in the provinces which have not been reported, a total of 10,423.—Charleston News and Courier, Dem.

WHY CHANGE?

Reasons Why Hon. John D. Bellamy Should Be Retained in Congress.

TAR HEEL, BLADEN CO., N. C. Editor Wilmington Star:

Please allow me space in your paper for a few words on the subject of Hon. John D. Bellamy's candidacy for Congress. There are several gentlemen in the field against him, I understand, and they are probably all good men and I have no intention of reflecting on them in what I say. I honestly believe, however, if we don't nominate and elect Mr. Bellamy again, we will make a great mistake. In the first place his usefulness in Congress is practically just beginning. It takes a man more than one term in Congress to become a man of influence there and to this fact as much as to anything else is due the great influence in Congress of many of the Northern States. They don't change a good man every two or four years just because somebody else wants the job and just to be changing but they keep him there so long as he is useful and carries out their ideas, and the longer he is kept in Congress the more influence he has and the better qualified he is to make himself useful. Mr. Bellamy has certainly shown himself to be in every way qualified for the place he holds and with the influence that comes with experience he will sooner or later become a very valuable man in Congress. He has hardly had a fair show yet, and what he has accomplished people should remember has been done in a Congress where a majority of the members are Republicans and the Democrats are in a minority. Yet, notwithstanding all this, he has done much for his district. He is considered to-day one of the ablest men in the House from this section, and is looked upon as the "man with a future." He has never let an opportunity pass when he could put in a word for North Carolina and he has usually gotten what he has asked for.

During his first term in Congress he was badly handicapped by a contest case in which O. H. Dockery was contesting his seat, and which was not decided by Congress until his term had about expired. The causes that led up to it including the vigorous campaign made by Mr. Bellamy should never be forgotten.

Those who read know what he has accomplished during his stay in Congress.

Mr. Burton, the chairman of the River and Harbor Improvement Committee, in an interview at Washington a short time ago, said that Bellamy in the House and Pritchard in the Senate had done more towards getting an appropriation for the upper Cape Fear than all the rest of the delegates from this State combined. Rural mail routes through all counties of the old district have been established by his influence. Wilmington has been made a port of entry. His speech on the Croatans and his efforts in their behalf are well known. He has helped his district in numbers of other cases and is always anxious and tireless in its behalf.

And now why should we try a change? It is the interest of this whole district that we should consider when we go to the Congressional convention, and not the interest of any one man or a wish to compliment any one man. Is there any other man who, considering his acquaintance with other members of Congress, his experience and his knowledge of the inner workings of Congress, would make us a more useful Congressman? I don't think there is. To put a new man in at this time seems to me to be beginning all over again. Let's stop experimenting.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Kinston Free Press: Late yesterday afternoon a farmer from Richlands sold his cart load of country produce for over $30, and yet many farmers say it does not pay to meddle with such small things as raising meat and chickens to sell.

— Salisbury Sun: All the farmers who come to Salisbury now-a-days report that crops are in a flourishing condition. The condition of corn is especially flattering and one of the best corn crops in ten years is expected if the favorable conditions continue.

— Greenville Reflector: On Sunday searching parties found the bodies Capt. Womble, Engineer Davenport and young Allen Moore, who were drowned in the sinking of the tug boat Patterson below Washington Friday night. The bodies found were all floating and some had drifted a mile or more from the scene of the wreck. All of them were taken up to Washington and buried immediately on arrival there. One body is yet missing, that of John Cutler not having been found at last report.

— Goldsboro Argus: Little John Crawford, the eight-year-old son of the late Mr. Joe Crawford, went into the kitchen Monday afternoon to build a fire with which to cook the evening meal. There was no one in the house at the time but the boy. He first poured oil on the wood and struck a match. This did not burn fast enough, and he poured more oil on the smoldering flame, which flared up in an instant and followed the stream of oil to the can like a current of electricity. The can exploded in his hands, strewing the burning oil over his body and making a noise like the firing of a toy pistol. The boy ran out of the house into the street with his clothing on fire, crying from the pain which the flames were inflicting. As luck would have it, the boy's grandfather, Mr. W. H. Sugg, was passing along the street in front of the house at the time the explosion occurred, and he was horrified to see his young grandson in a flame of fire. Mr. Sugg caught the boy and extinguished the flames, but not before the little fellow had been burned seriously on the breast and arms. Medical attention was called in at once and all possible relief has been administered. While the boy is not out of danger to-day, yet it is not thought that the burns will prove fatal.

— Raleigh News and Observer: A brutal murder occurred in Wake county Saturday. It took place near Pernell, about six miles from Wake Forest, and it was a woman who was killed, her head being split open with an axe. Her name is given as Mrs. Catherine White, though by some she is known as Mrs. Fannie Bailey. She was about 60 years old, lived by herself and had a small farm. She was an expert weaver of carpels and often did work of this kind. Dr. T. M. Jordan went to Pernell Sunday and held an inquest, examining some ten or twelve witnesses. From them the following information was gathered: About 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon Messrs. S. M. Little and June Allen passed her house and saw her back of her house picking berries. About 4 o'clock Mr. Robt. Turner passed and saw the dead body in the yard. He immediately gave the alarm. The dead woman was kneeling by a stump and her head forward on the ground, and some fagots in her arms. The entire back of her head was crushed in and cut with an axe, and this weapon of death lay, all bloody, by her side. She must have been using the axe to cut wood, and her murderer used it. In her pocket was found 35 cents, two knives, three tooth brushes, snuff and a plug of tobacco. Nothing in her little home was disturbed, and $3 was found in a pocketbook. There was no indication of robbery. Nothing was brought out at the coroner's inquest to lead to an arrest. —— An application for the pardon of Richard Blanton, one of the three negroes sentenced to be hanged at Salisbury on July 8th, has been made to Governor Aycock. Fleming, the other negro convicted of the same crime, admits his guilt, but swears that Blanton is innocent and that he was the only person present when the crime was committed.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The cotton market opened steady, with prices unchanged to five points higher on light demand reports and absence of selling pressure of note. Dry weather over the drought sections of the belt, with a forecast for fair weather to-night and to-morrow generally in the country led to continued buying after the call, though the Summer options weakened under realizing by commission house longs. The trading was disposed to drag from the first, the public refusing to re-enter the market at a time when one of the most important condition reports of the season was close at hand (due to-morrow at 12 o'clock.) Late in the morning, the Summer months resumed their former relations to the rest of the list, but were comparatively quiet. The general course of the market during the rest of the session was upward, though speculation did not broaden and sentiment in professional circles remained more or less mixed. The South sold in a small way from time to time. Europe bought October. The market closed steady and net four to eight points higher. Total sales estimated at 50,000 bales.

Cotton futures market closed steady: July 8.05, August 8.39, September 7.99, October 7.88, November 7.80, December 7.79, January 7.79, February 7.79, March 7.80.

Total to-day—Net receipts 2,315 bales; exports to the Continent 1,117 bales; stock 320,790 bales.

Consolidated—Net receipts 9,641 bales; exports to Great Britain 2,949 bales; exports to France 5,293 bales; exports to the Continent 3,359 bales.

Total since September 1st.—Net receipts 7,471,317 bales; exports to Great Britain 2,981,779 bales; exports to France 719,221 bales; exports to the Continent 2,667,134 bales.

July 2.—Galveston, quiet at 8 15-16c, net receipts 833 bales; Norfolk, quiet at 9¼c, net receipts 80 bales; Baltimore nominal at 9¼c, net receipts — bales; Boston, firm at 9¼c, net receipts 25 bales; Wilmington, firm at 9c, net receipts 2 bales; Philadelphia, steady at 9¼c, net receipts — bales; Savannah, steady at 8¾c, net receipts 53 bales; New Orleans, steady at 9c, net receipts 1,119 bales; Mobile, nominal at 8¾c, net receipts — bales; Memphis, quiet at 8¾c, net receipts 35 bales; Augusta, quiet and steady at 9¼c, net receipts 104 bales; Charleston, quiet and nominal, net receipts 8 bales.

PRODUCE MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Flour was easier again and dull. Rye flour quiet; fair to good $3 25@3 45. Wheat—Spot firm; No. 2 red 81¼c. The wheat market to-day was less active and for the most part weaker. It opened firm on rains, then reacted and under heavy unloading was weak during the afternoon at a cent less. Easy cables, lack of export trade and warmer weather were the chief selling motions. The market closed ½c net lower. Sales included: July closed 81¼c; September 79c; December 79⅞c. Corn—Spot irregular; No. 2 71. Options, after opening firmer, eased off on rising temperatures West and the wheat decline, closing weak at ¼@½c net lower. The transactions included: July closed 69c; September closed 65½c; December closed 63¾c. Oats—Spot steady; No. 2 55¼@55c. Options showed early firmness on rains but yielded later to unloading. Lard firm; Western steam $11 00@11 05; July closed $11 05, nominal; refined firm. Butter was firm; creamery 18¼@31½c; State dairy 18@20½c. Tallow firm. Rice steady to firm; domestic, fair to extra 4½@6¼c; Japan 4¾@5c. Pork firm. Eggs were firm; State and Pennsylvania 19¾@20c; Southwestern, 15½@17½c. Coffee—Spot Rio dull; No. 7 invoice 5¼c; mild firm; Cordova 8@11¼c. Sugar—Raw strong; fair refining 2¾c; centrifugal 96 test, 3¾; refined sugar steady. CHICAGO, July 2.—The grain markets were distinctly quieter to day, although nervousness over the weather and crop damage was still apparent. Signs of clearing weather in the West were influential in checking advances. The July corn deal was neglected. July wheat closed ½c. higher; September wheat ½c. lower; July corn 1½c. up; September corn ½c. lower; September oats ¼c. down Provisions closed 2½c. lower to 2½c. higher.

CHICAGO, July 2.—Cash prices: Flour firm. Wheat—No. 3 spring 75@76¼c; No. 2 red 78c. Corn—No. 2 75@75¼; No. 2 yellow 75@75¼c. Oats—No. 2 49@50c; No. 2 white 54¼@55c; No. 3 white 53¼@54¼c. Mess pork, per barrel, $18 42½. Short clear sides, boxed, $10 67½@10 70. Whiskey—Basis of high wines, $1 30.

DR. MOFFETT'S TEETHINA (TEETHING POWDERS)

Costs Only 25 cents at Druggists,

Or mail 25 cents to C. J. MOFFETT, M. D., ST. LOUIS, MO.

Cures Cholera-Infantum, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, and the Bowel Troubles of Children of Any Age. Aids Digestion, Regulates the Bowels, Strengthens the Child and Makes TEETHING EASY.

FLORENCE, S. C., Nov. 26, 1900.—I was first advised by our family physician in Charleston to use TEETHINA with our baby when he was but a very young infant, as a preventive of colic and to warn and sweeten the stomach. Later it was useful in teething troubles, and its effect has been found to be so very beneficial and so free from dangers that are consequent upon the use of drugs and soothing syrups, that we have come to regard it, after use with three children, as one of the necessities when there is a new baby in the house and until the teething troubles are over, and we take pleasure in recommending it to our friends instead of the horrid stuff that so many people use to keep their baby quiet. HARTWELL M. AYER, (Manager Daily Times and Weekly Times-Messenger.)

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

Queer Playhouse That Belongs to Some Detroit Children.

The children that lived in the shoe didn't know what fun was. That's what the children that live in a bottle in Detroit think.

There was the "old woman" to be reckoned with in the shoe, but G. Jay Vinton's youngsters can get both fists full of jam in the pantry and then duck into a haven of refuge in their huge bottle and have it all to themselves.

The bottle came in sections to the Vinton yard at 83 Stimson place from Omaha, where it was once on exhibition in the Transmississippi exposition. It is made of wood.

At Omaha it did double work as advertising agent for the firm whose goods it represented and as a candy booth. It was shipped back to Mr. Vinton, who built it, to be smashed up for firewood.

But the ever alert young Vintons heard of it, and then they pleaded until he promised them the bottle for a playhouse. Though a ten foot section of the neck was left out and another section from the bottom, the cork is still high enough so that when the little fellows wake up they can see the cork of their playhouse through their second floor windows.

The bottle has a door large enough for them to enter, though the children are sure there would be more fun in crawling in and out where the cork fits in the neck.

At least ten small children can get into the bottle and imagine to their hearts' content that they are sirup and pickles and everything else that they can't have much of.—Detroit Journal.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Information From an Authority on Cleaning Old Engravings.

The cleaning of old engravings requires special care, and it is sometimes prudent, if they are rare masterpieces, not to confine this operation to strange hands. We give a process of cleaning the result of which is excellent and which we have seen adopted by one of the most celebrated collectors of engravings in Paris. The engraving must be soaked for twelve hours in a flat bottomed basin containing a solution of a half ounce of carbonate of potassium in a half gallon of water; it is then taken out, shaken and placed between two boards heavily weighted down, being first carefully spread between two sheets of blotting paper. It then undergoes a fresh washing by having a small jet of pure water played upon it for some hours, when it is dipped for one hour in salt water (half ounce to half gallon of water) and exposed to the air for half a day. It is then washed again in clear water and dried between two leaves of blotting paper under heavy pressure. These successive operations are somewhat long, it is true, but nevertheless far preferable to the proceedings of the so called restorers of engravings, who frequently use chloride water, which rapidly destroys the paper. Engravings so cleaned are certainly very white when they come from the hands of the cleaner, but little brown spots are soon to be perceived on the surface of the paper—spots which it is impossible to make disappear. It is on this account that paper whitened with chloride is never employed for printing good engravings or editions de luxe of books.—Art Amateur.

To Remove the Odor of Mutton.

This recipe is an original and tested one from an old cook, who made use of it for her own personal benefit. The peculiar odor which permeates the flesh of lambs and sheep, the latter especially, is very offensive to most people, and many who would otherwise enjoy the meat cannot eat it on account of this unpleasant attribute. Now, the remedy is simple and inexpensive, for all that is necessary is to take the juice of one lemon and beat with it sufficient butter to make a gravy and pour this over the meat when broiling or when putting it in to bake; it applies to frying also.

Another method which she gave, and which may possibly be known to others, is to pour the gravy of the meat when it is done over some fresh gathered mint leaves, allowing it to remain long enough for the mint to thoroughly flavor it; then pour it back over the meat. This is known as mint gravy.

Cleaning House by Machinery.

A friend in Quincy, Ill., gives a glowing account of the new apparatus which cleans house by means of compressed air without disturbing furniture, rugs or bric-a-brac. A van stations itself outside the house, and the operator runs his hose into the rooms, and with an odd little device resembling a carpet sweeper inverted he cleans everything in sight and some things which are not in sight. The machine gathers the dirt into a receptacle of its own. Walls and draperies are cleansed, upholstery, all sorts of things, without clearing the rooms. Only a few cities have been visited thus far by this twentieth century wonder worker, but the big red van promises to be a familiar figure on the landscape another spring. It hails from St. Louis.—Good Housekeeping.

HE KNEW SAGE'S HABIT.

One of the younger proprietors of one of the big department stores up town that advertise "bargain sales" on a special preannounced day every week has been winning all his expenses by betting with his coterie in Delmonico's that Russell Sage would be one of the first to arrive at his store on the morning of the marked down disposals. He knew from experience that the veteran financier rarely in the spring and fall misses one of these "clearings out." Mr. Sage picks up bargains in all sorts of things which he can find use for, from a pair of trousers ($3.50—original price $7) to small kitchen utensils marked down from 5 cents to a penny apiece.

"If every one would be as judicious in their buying as I am," Mr. Sage once observed to the narrator of this true story, "there would be less poverty and the mortification and suffering resulting therefrom. Nearly every one is living beyond his means."—New York Times.

When Sir Thomas Returned.

The king fixed his eyes on Sir Thomas a little reproachfully. The gallant knight flinched slightly beneath the steady gaze.

"Did you catch the cup, Tommy?" his majesty asked, and he asked it in the tone of a man who knows just what the answer will be.

"I did not," said Sir Thomas.

He hove a heavy sigh as he said it. Then he hove two.

"You did not," repeated his majesty. "I know you did not. The trouble is that in knotical parlance you did not knot fast enough."

The king's features relaxed as he relieved himself of this humorous sally, and, taking Sir Thomas by the arm, he permitted one eyelid to slightly droop as they passed down the corridor and through a green baize swinging door.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Shark Skins and Shark Fins.

In all the equatorial islands of the north and south Pacific shark fishing is a very profitable industry to the natives, and every trading steamer and sailing vessel coming into the port of Sydney or Auckland from the islands of the mid-Pacific brings some tons of fins, tails and skins of sharks. The principal markets for the former are Hongkong and Singapore, but the Chinese merchants of the Australasian colonies will always buy sharks' fins and tails at from six to eleven pence per pound, the fins bringing the best price on account of the larger amount of glutinous matter they contain, for which they are highly relished by the richer class of Chinese as a delicacy. The tails are also appreciated as an article of food in China, and, apart from their edible qualities, they have a further value as a base for clear varnishes, etc.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders ever cease!" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electrict Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 3.

EXAMINATION IN CASE OF LOUIS A. DISBROW.

Young Man Charged With the Murder of Sarah Lawrence and Clarence Foster on Long Island.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The examination in the case of Louis A. Disbrow who is accused of having murdered Sarah Lawrence and Clarence Foster on the morning on June 16th last, was formally begun by Justice of the Peace Edward H. Foster, in Good Ground, L. I., to-day. The widow of Clarence Foster was present in court when the hearing was begun.

The first witness called was John Caffrey, who testified as to the finding of the body of Foster floating in Tiana bay.

The next witness was John Squires, owner of one of the two boats found adrift in Tiana bay. He was unable to say whether or not his boat was moored on the night of the disappearance of Foster and the girl.

Willis Wells, a livery man, said that Foster came to his place on Monday night, June 9th, and hired a one seat runabout, built to hold two persons. Later in the evening Wells saw the runabout with three persons in it. He recognized them as Miss Lawrence, Foster and Disbrow. The next morning he said the rig was driven into his yard by Disbrow. It was scratched in some places and Disbrow offered to pay for the damage, which Wells said would amount to ten dollars. Disbrow tendered a check for $20. Wells did not have the right change, and Disbrow said that it did not matter—that he would be back in two days and settle the bill. Since that time witness had not seen Disbrow until he saw him in court this morning. Coroner Nugent said he saw blood on Foster's face, but he did not notice any cuts or bruises when he examined the body of the girl. The head was swollen and the neck and chest were black.

KING EDWARD IMPROVING.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, July 2.—King Edward has passed another good day. The quiet and routine of the sick room was varied to-day by the excitement of listening to the music and cheers of the Indian troops as they marched past the palace and greeted Queen Alexandra on the balcony. King Edward demanded a full account of the review, and the formal report made by the Prince of Wales was supplemented by the personal narrative of the Queen. His majesty dictated a letter to the Duke of Connaught, directing him to compliment the colonial troops upon their excellent appearance and to thank them for their expressions of loyalty and sympathy which he had heard with pleasure in his sick room. King Edward was somewhat disappointed that he was not able to see the march past of the troops. He had hoped that this would be possible from an invalid couch in the window of the palace, but the doctors were unwilling that he should risk exposure and excitement and his majesty had to content himself with hearing the troops without seeing them.

ENCOUNTER WITH A BURGLAR.

A Wealthy Citizen of Brooklyn Shot and Fatally Wounded.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Albert C. Latimer, a wealthy stationer of the city, who lives in Brooklyn, was fatally shot early to-day at his home in a struggle with a burglar. The burglar escaped, leaving his shoes and cap behind. Having been awakened by his wife, who heard a noise, Mr. Latimer started to make a search. As he opened a closet door the burglar, masked, dashed out and Mr. Latimer grappled with him. In the struggle the robber fired two shots and after the second Mr. Latimer fell. His assailant then leaped over him and fled through the kitchen window where he had entered the house. A policeman a block away heard the shots and the screams of Mrs. Latimer and ran to the house. A thorough search was made of the neighborhood but no trace of the burglar was found. Mr. Latimer was taken to a hospital where the doctors after an examination said he could not live.

GEORGIA DEMOCRATS.

State Convention Made Nominations for State Officers—The Platform.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 2.—Georgia Democrats, in State convention here to-day, nominated the State ticket and ratified the result of primaries held June 5th.

After the nominations were made the convention adjourned until 5 o'clock, when the platform was submitted and unanimously adopted. It deals almost entirely with State issues. The Kansas City platform is passed over in silence and the name of W. J. Bryan is not mentioned.

TO DEMOCRATS OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Republicans Scheming to Capture the State and Control the Legislature.

SIMMONS ISSUES WARNING.

The Plan is to Stir Up Dissensions Among the Democrats—Then on the Eve of Election Have the Federal Court Set Aside the Amendment.

Chairman Simmons, of the Democratic State Committee, authorizes the following statement:

For some time past prominent North Carolina Republicans in Washington have been intimating that their party would control the next North Carolina Legislature and that Senator Pritchard would be returned to the Senate. Democrats have been unable to understand the grounds of this hope in the face of the fact that that party lost the State in the August election in 1900 by about sixty thousand majority, and since that time has lost, by the educational provision of the amendment, between seventy and eighty thousand of its former voters.

The persistency with which this claim was made aroused in my mind a suspicion that it was based upon some secret scheme and led me to an investigation, with the view of ascertaining what it all meant. As a result of this investigation, I have discovered a shrewdly advised and well developed conspiracy.

The scheme, briefly stated, is to stir up and promote dissensions and independentism and, by raising the cry that the amendment has eliminated the negro and freed the white man, to bring about during the early stages of the campaign a hopeless division among Democrats, and then on the eve of the election have the Federal Court set aside the amendment. In this enterprise and in organizing the opposition forces, the conspirators are to have unlimited money furnished them by the National Republican Executive Committee, upon the promise of two, if not three, Republican Congressmen from the State and the retention of the present Republican Senator.

In order to divide the Democrats, every local dissatisfaction, every local quarrel, every fancied complaint and grievance against the party and the State administration, every disappointment growing out of the nomination or defeat of candidates, is to be assiduously nursed and fanned. The Democratic party is to be charged with hostility to certain interests and with nominating men to office known to be prejudiced against these interests, and conservative voters are to be appealed to to resent this alleged assault, and to cast their votes against these objectionable candidates. It is expected that the opposition to Judge Clark's nomination will start the bolt, and that, on account of the unusual number of Democratic candidates this year, defeated candidates all over the State will be found who will be ready to hazard their chances by allowing the use of their name.

On these lines our adversaries propose to open and for a time conduct their campaign. When the lines of battle have been drawn and tightened, when passion has been stirred to white heat by the friction of conflict, when alignments have been made, and when it is believed that the bolters have gone so far that passion and pride will not permit them to return to their old associations, as the day of election draws near at hand, the courts will be asked to declare the amendment unconstitutional and void. Every detail to this end has been carefully arranged and the conspirators are confident there will be no hitch or failure or delay in carrying out the programme at any point. Between the 1st and 15th of October a white man, who has been refused registration because he has failed to pay his poll tax, will apply to a Republican Federal judge, who has already been selected, for a mandamus to compel the registrar to admit him to registration. This judge will hold that it is within the authority of the State to make the payment of poll tax a condition precedent to the right to vote, but he will also hold that the grandfather clause is unconstitutional; and, as the amendment provides that the whole shall stand or fall together, every part of the amendment is affected by this infirmity. The attack will be made upon the poll tax instead of the educational clause, to avoid going into court with a negro as complainant.

By reason of the shortness of the time, it will be impossible to get the case heard on appeal before the election, and, as the judgment will be effective until over-ruled on appeal, it is the expectation of the conspirators that the election will be held under the law as thus declared. If registrars refuse to recognize and act upon this decision, mandamuses will be used by the thousands, to be followed, if necessary to carry out the conspiracy, by Federal Court bench warrants.

The negro, who is always ready to obey the orders of his party leaders, is to be kept quiet, but secretly organized and kept in readiness to rush to the polls when the time is ripe and the way is clear. It is the calculation of the conspirators that with one hundred and twenty thousand negro votes, added to the Republican and dissatisfied Democratic vote, they will be able at least to carry enough counties to control the Legislature.

The conspirators have thoroughly discussed in connection with this scheme the election law passed by the last Legislature, and are greatly encouraged and comforted in their enterprise by its fairness and the large representation it gives to the opposition party. They expect, before their designs upon the amendment are discovered, that the county boards, registrars, judges of election, etc., will have been appointed and organized, and that they will have secured on these boards all the representation necessary to protect their voters and to carry out their conspiracy.

This is the Republican scheme to capture the State, and it is the basis of all the predictions we have heard recently of the re-election of the present Republican Senator. It is not a scheme merely in contemplation, but one which has been discussed, matured and agreed upon. In asserting this, I speak not from conjecture, but from positive and reliable information.

Of course, the success of this scheme required the utmost secrecy, and for this reason but few have been taken into the inner circle. The lieutenants have been given to understand that the party chiefs have a big card up their sleeves, which it is expected at the right time will be played and sweep the deck. But so far the scheme is a secret to all except the big leaders. The success of this scheme requires also the prostitution of the judiciary for purely partisan purposes, but Republican officialdom in North Carolina is a close corporation, and this part of the programme presents no practical difficulties.

I have felt it my duty to expose this conspiracy to take snap judgment against the white people of the State and bring them again under the yoke of negro domination. Never did the old maxim, "forewarned, forearmed," apply with greater force. In the name of the white people of North Carolina, I tell these conspirators that never again, under any circumstances, will negro rule be permitted to exist in North Carolina. White supremacy is not only written in the constitution, but it is written in the hearts of the white people of the State. If the Republican party of the State hopes again to come into power in North Carolina, it must look elsewhere than to the negro vote. All hopes of political success based upon that vote is doomed to disappointment. They must either accept the amendment in good faith or openly repudiate it. They will not be permitted to invoke its benificent and liberalizing provisions while secretly plotting its assassination.

CIVIL GOVERNMENT FOR THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

Steps to Be Taken at Once to Put the Act Recently Passed by Congress Into Operation.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Chairman Cooper, of the House Committee on Insular Affairs, says steps will be taken at once to put the Philippine government act in operation.

"The first step," said Mr. Cooper, to-day, "will be the complete transfer of authority from the military to the officials, except in the Moro country where there is some lingering disorder. The transfer will be accomplished by a proclamation of the President, which it is understood will be issued on the Fourth of July. Beside turning over the authority to the civil officials, the change will permit a considerable reduction of the military force in the islands, although orders already given contemplate a reduction to 18,000 men. In 1900 we had 70,000 men in the Philippines, so that we will soon have reduced the force by 52,000 and the transfer of authority under the act doubtless will lead to a further reduction before long.

"The next step will be to take the census as provided by the act. Governor Taft told me this work would be begun as soon as he reached Manila. His plan is to have the work done as far as possible by Filipinos, and the commission will get up their own census system instead of having it done by the census office although they are empowered to get census experts from here by making application to the President. The purpose, however, is to make the work thoroughly a local one, so that it will serve the Filipinos as an object lesson. The census will take about a year.

"As to the general effect of the act, we have just enacted," added Mr. Cooper, "I share the view of Governor Taft who says that if this bill became a law you would hear no more of the Philippines than we do of Porto Rico, and the Philippine problem would gradually disappear."

A WOMAN MURDERED.

Her Husband Arrested, Suspected of the Crime—The Jail Guarded to Prevent Lynching.

By Telegraph to the Morning star.

RICHMOND, VA., July 2.—A special from Lawrenceville, Va., says:

"The most atrocious crime committed in this county since the cruel murder of Dr. W. H. Temple, occurred near the home of A. M. McClary, of Ghelsonville, Monday morning.

A woman, Harriet Avant, Mr. McClary's cook, went as usual to work, and after waiting for some time for her to return, Mr. McClary sent out to see what had detained her. She was found unconscious with her skull fractured. She died soon afterwards. An axe, which had done the deadly work, was found close by. Her husband was immediately suspected of the crime.

Citizens, white and colored, searched the whole day for the husband but he could not be found. That night he returned home, it is thought to get his clothing, and he was captured. Yesterday he was given a preliminary trial and committed to jail. The crime has aroused intense feeling. Last night the jail was guarded by fifteen or twenty men, and every precaution is being taken to prevent a lynching.

The Federal Sugar Refining Company, that was incorporated at Trenton, N. J., recently with an authorized capital of $100,000,000, has filed papers increasing its capital $50,000, one-half of which is preferred stock with six per cent. cumulative dividends.

War is on between the Southern Railway and the Louisville and Nashville, in Louisville, Ky., over all shipments out of or into that city from competitive points. The Southern has issued a circular offering to Louisville shippers payment of drayage on a number of articles which are sent out of Louisville in large quantities and with which competition with the L. & N. is keenest.

DISTURBANCES IN THE COAL REGIONS

THE POLICE TOOK A HAND.

No One Hurt in the Firing—The Strikers' Pickets Arrested by Colliery Guards and Held for Trial--Strike Situation in Virginia Fields.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WILKESBARRE, PA., July 2.—There was a serious disturbance at the William A. Colliery, at Old Forge, shortly after noon to-day. When a member of the surveying corps came out of the barricade he was attacked by about five hundred foreigners who threw stones at him. The surveyor pulled a revolver and fired in the direction of the crowd. Then the coal and iron police at the colliery took a hand and began firing. The surveyor jumped in a wagon and made his escape to Pittston. So far as can be learned no one was hurt in the firing.

William Fitzinger was taken before Magistrate VanHorn at Kingston today charged with intimidation and conspiracy. The Citizens' Alliance at Wilkesbarre was the prosecutor. He was held in $7,000 bail for court. This is the first prosecution instituted by the Alliance, which offers $5,000 in rewards for the arrest and conviction of all boycotters.

Pickets Arrested.

HAZELTON, PA., July 2.—John Shovelin, John Gillett, Joseph Schaner and John Mehatzi, pickets, stationed along the road leading to the Drifton colliery of Coxe Brothers & Co., to prevent non-union men from going to work, were arrested to-day by colliery guards and taken to jail at Wilkesbarre It is alleged that one of the pickets drew a revolver when ordered by a guard to permit men to pass the line. The strikers report that a guard threatened to shoot unless his order was obeyed, whereupon Shovelin also whipped out a weapon, which was knocked from his hand by one of the deputies. A scramble ensued in which the pickets became involved. Sheriff Jacobs was summoned and while he persuaded the crowd that had gathered near the scene to disperse, the prisoners were hustled to the county seat. They were held for trial. This is thought to be the first step towards resuming mining operations in some of the collieries.

Coxe Brothers & Co. have instructed all their men who are held up by the strikers' pickets and compelled to return home, to furnish written statements concerning their cases. This is being done to compel the sheriff and local authorities to preserve order or to confess their inability to do so. If the sheriff cannot prevent the strikers from turning back men who report for work, the Governor may be appealed to for protection.

Arrested Men Sent to Jail.

WILKESBARRE, PA., July 2.—A number of justices of the peace in Luzern county were kept busy today giving hearings to men charged with inciting and participating in riots at coal mines. Early this morning Deputy Sheriff Eckert brought four men from Freeland, charged with engaging in a riot at that place. The prisoners were taken before Magistrate Pollock for a hearing. The justice's office was crowded to suffocation. Among the spectators was National Board Member John Fallon, who was present to see that the arrested men got fair play.

At strike headquarters it was claimed that the trials were an outrage and that the men should have had a hearing at their homes instead of being brought to Wilkesbarre. The magistrate, after hearing all the evidence, held the defendants in $500 bail for trial at court. Mr. Fallon could not furnish the bail and the four men had to go to jail.

County Detective Phillips, of Lackawana county, came to Duryea to-day and going to William colliery placed seven of the coal and iron policemen on duty there under arrest. They are charged with the shooting yesterday of the Italian, whose dead body was found outside of the barricade by a passer by. The officers were taken to Scranton and arraigned before Magistrate Howe. They were held in $1,000 bail to answer at court.

Virginia Coal Mines.

ROANOKE, VA., July 2.—Reports from the Pocahontas Flap Top coal fields to the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company to-day indicate that the operators are satisfied with the progress being made. There is but little uneasiness felt over the approach of the Fourth of July and while it is expected there will be a practical suspension of operations throughout the fields on that day, it is believed that every man who stops work to take the holiday will be back in the mines on the 5th or the following Monday at the latest. The officials do not believe that the ordering of a general strike in the bituminous fields by the convention at Indianapolis on the 17th inst. will affect the Pocahontas Flat Top fields. The operators are confident that they will be able to retain their present working force against any strike order that may be issued from any source. Some colored men who have been on strike since June 7th, may stay out until after the Indianapolis meeting because they fear bodily harm at the hands of some of the more radical whites, who have threatened them with violence. The present loading in the Pocahontas Flat Top fields is fully 75 per cent. of the normal output. The Tug River field is still closed down and practically no coal is being mined in that territory.

How About That Tackle?

The blue birds are with us again. The streams and ponds are warming up. The fishermen should be looking up their outfits. Seeing if anything is wanted before the last minute.

As of old we are showing the finest things to tempt the fish kingdom and make the sport more sporty for the anglers.

Lines may be wanted; poles must be needed; hooks are very necessary, and in fact we have everything that is required to make a complete outfit.

To those that are interested in the sport, to those others that may not be so enthusiastic, we would consider it a favor to have all come in and look.
